RESOLUTION R-138-07

A RESOLUTION PROCLAIMING SEPTEMBER 22, 2007 AS
"SARA GOODWIN DAY".

WHEREAS, Sara Goodwin, the late wife of Steven Goodwin, CEO of Hard Rock Park, was very passionate and concerned for the welfare of needy children; she held a life-long dedication to making a difference in these children's lives; and

WHEREAS, in her memory and honor, a charity event – "Sara's Beach Walk" – has been organized by Hard Rock Park to be held September 20-22, 2007; and

WHEREAS, "Sara's Beach Walk, a 45-mile walk spanning over three days along the Grand Strand beaches, will benefit SOS Health Care, SOS Children's Village and the Sara Goodwin Memorial Foundation; and

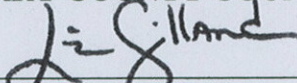

WHEREAS, through the efforts of the participants and their sponsors, the Sara Goodwin Foundation hopes to raise funds to build the fourth SOS Children's Village in Myrtle Beach and to benefit a variety of other causes such as training therapy dogs for autistic children.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Horry County Council expresses its appreciation to the Hard Rock Park for their gracious participation in this worth-while cause.

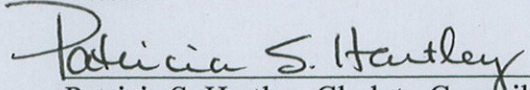

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that in the memory of Sara Goodwin, a selfless worker for less fortunate children, Horry County Council proclaims September 22, 2007 as Sara Goodwin Day.

AND IT IS SO RESOLVED this 18th day of September, 2007.

HORRY COUNTY COUNCIL

Liz Gilland, Chairman
